

tor of Charities and a permit received from him for the same.

"The acts of the Inspector of Charities are at all times to be subject to the approval of this board."

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Large Grist of Routine Matters Presented for Decision.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday in regular session for the transaction of routine and miscellaneous business, and were kept hustling all day to decide the many matters presented to them for consideration.

The petition for the vacation of part of Sunset avenue was continued indefinitely.

The deed of certain lands to the county by R. E. Nickel was accepted.

Bids for the bonds of the Bellevue School District will be opened February 4 at 2 p.m.

Upon motion of Supervisor Hanley a deputy will be allowed Constable Harry Johnston, at a salary of $50 a month.

The petition for the vacation of a new road district, to be known as Gardena road district, was set for hearing February 4 at 11 a.m.

The petition for a bridge on the Whittier and Puente road was granted.

Bids for the grading on the Tapango Cañon road were received and taken under advisement.

Upon motion of Supervisor Wirsching an extra deputy was granted to the County Treasurer.

Supervisor Field was instructed to purchase hardware for a shed at the County Farm.

A deed of land from the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to Los Angeles county was accepted, and the land declared a highway. It is the land claimed as right-of-way for the Santa Monica branch, near the University station.

Bids for alterations in the offices of the Auditor and Assessor were opened and taken under advisement.

The petition for vacating certain streets and avenues in Felt & Co.'s first addition to Long Beach, was set for hearing February 17.

The petition for the opening and continuation of Rali street in the Rowland road district was set for February 4 at 11 a.m.

The board will visit the completed bridges at Cerritos station and Wilmington avenue January 25.

The viewers' report of Peck avenue was set for hearing February 17.

Applications for saloon licenses were all continued. That of Anderson & Co. for Gorman station to February 4 at 2 p.m.; that of Edward Tisnerat, for Los Alamitos, for February 4 at 10 a.m., and that of T. V. Johnson, at Newhall, to February 4 at 2 p.m.

The bid of T. A. Grant, for grading the Calabasas and Topango Cañon road was taken under advisement, all others being rejected.

The bid of Peter Keenan, for alterations of the Courthouse, was taken under advisement, all others being rejected.

Upon motion of Supervisor Hanley the petition of certain residents of Piedmont for the vacation and return to acreage of Harvard, Yale and Wellesley avenues, Amherst, Smith and Williston streets, College Way and a part of Dartmouth street, in that town, was granted.

The petition for the vacation of a portion of Fourth street in Acton was granted.

The petition for the reversion to acreage of the Currier & Curtis tract, at Lamanda Park, was granted.

The petition for the vacation of Evergreen avenue, in the San José Road District, was continued for further hearing to February 4, at 11 a.m.

Upon motion of Supervisor Field the following set of rules was adopted by the board:

"Applications from indigents for aid from the county must be made to the Inspector of Charities, who, after investigation, shall report on the same to the board.

"Applications for admission to the County Farm and to the County Hospital, except in emergency cases for admission to the hospital, must be made to the Inspector of Charities, who, after investigation and consultation with the superintendents of these institutions, shall report to the board on the merits of the cases.

"Applications for permission to bury in the County Cemetery and applications for the burying of indigents at the county's expense, except those buried from the County Farm, the County Hospital, or upon order of the coroner, must be made to the Inspec-